Won't Slight a Good Friend.

"If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get," declares Mrs. A. L. Alley of Beals, Me., "for, after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeing its excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced it is the best medicine made for coughs, colds and lung trouble." Everyone who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. For bronchitis, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, lagrippe, sore throat, pain in chest or lungs, it's supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The dance at Grange hall last evening was a success.

Don't forget to attend the band meeting at Town hall next Monday evening and take along a musical friend.

There will be a "Harvest Feast" at Grange hall on May 19th; members of the Grange are requested to bring cake and doughnuts.

Attend the Union service at the Congregational church tomorrow (Sunday), and here the "Children Choir" sing, and listen to Pastor Strong's sermon, the subject will be, "Cause and Effect in Character Development."

NORWICH UNIVERSITY.

Bishop Hall to Deliver the Baccalaureate Discourse.

Bishop A. C. A. Hall of the Vermont diocese of the Episcopal church, has accepted an invitation to deliver the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class of Norwich university, Sunday, June 14.

The class of 1909 has set its class step among those leading up the embankment to Jackman hall. This is a custom which is observed each year by the graduating class. The steps are granite, with the class numerals carved on the face.

The committee of seniors, who have charge of the commencement week exercises, is composed of the following members: Captain W. L. Clark, chairman; Lieutenants E. N. Clark, C. C. Thomas, G. E. Ames, and first class hospital Sergeant H. M. Lord.

Hon. Josiah H. Benton, LL.D. of Boston, has sent to the college a large engraving of Lincoln made from a photograph taken by Gardner of Washington on the Sunday before the dedication of the national cemetery at Gettysburg. This likeness is doubly interesting when we join to its excellence the thought that, resting on the table by which Mr. Lincoln is shown as sitting, there is a copy of Mr. Everett's oration as prepared for delivery at the dedication. Col. Benton has been largely instrumental in advancing the interest of the public library of Boston, and the engraving referred to above is one of a set originally prepared by him to be hung in the public library buildings of that city.

PARISFAL.

Coming to Montpelier Opera House Next Monday Evening.

One of the most striking and beautiful features in the spectacle of "Parisfal" which comes to Montpelier Monday, May 17, is the Flower Garden scene with its fascinating Flower Maidens. This garden, is the creation of E. Klingor, for the deliberate purpose of seducing the Knight of the Holy Grail from their lives of rectitude and holiness. But it is in the attempted destruction of the soul of the hero himself, Parisfal, where Klingor puts forth his greatest efforts, and the Flower Garden and its occupants are made to play their most important part. The garden itself is fairy-like and enchanting. Its luxuriant foliage and tropical plants and flowers of gorgeous and varied colors are sufficient to dazzle the eye and bewilder the senses with their splendor and penetrating perfume. Then again, in and out among this sea of Oriental color and luxuriance, there appears a number of young and lovely maidens who rival in beauty of face and figure the magnificence and charm of their exquisite surroundings. The whole scene blazes with iridescent grandeur in the brilliant sunlight and guileless Parisfal is lured by Klingor, intent upon his moral downfall. And yet we see how this noble youth is enabled to resist all the allurements and temptations that beset him. How, even when the arch temptress, Kundry, now transformed into an enchantress of wondrous beauty and voluptuousness, is powerless to attract him. We see these two arch demons, frustrated in their evil machinations, at last resort to physical violence, fearful that Parisfal shall escape them. Klingor hurls the sacred lance at the head of the valiant youth. It falls to strike him but miraculously remains suspended over his head. Parisfal grasps the holy relic and with it makes the sign of the Cross. A loud crash of thunder is heard and the magic castle crumbles into ruins; the Flower Garden and all it contains is turned into an arid waste, and Klingor disappears forever. Kundry is overwhelmed with fright and horror, while Parisfal, holding aloft the holy spear, reveals a striking picture of triumphant good over evil.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

BETHEL

Special Inducements by Milford, N. H., to Get Fisher Tannery.

E. C. and E. A. Fisher are yet in Boston and it is understood that they are to meet the Milford, N. H., people who want the E. C. Fisher Co. to locate there. It is reported that Milford will exempt them from taxation and offers also to furnish building satisfactory to the company if they will locate there. The Central Vermont Railway Co. has made a guarantee to deliver the freight from Bethel to Boston on a two days' limit, and so far all arrangements have been favorable to rebuilding, but no decided answer has been given.

Percy Ray Adams died at the Baptist hospital in Brookline, Mass., May 7, and his remains were brought here to be interred in the family lot. Deceased was the son of William R. Adams, and was born in Bethel in 1860. Four years ago he with his mother and brothers went to reside in Brookline. The direct cause of his death was the result of an operation to straighten the hip joint and was the last of at least a dozen previous successful operations for relaxing the muscles and joints which many years' suffering from rheumatism had made helpless and nearly unbearable. The funeral services were held in Brookline and the remains accompanied by his sister, Miss Florence Adams, and two brothers, Harry E. and Arthur Adams. Rev. H. A. Parkhurst, pastor of the Universalist church, here, was the officiating clergyman.

A son was born May 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Burnap Southworth.

J. F. Pease is taking a two weeks' vacation from his duties as mail carrier on route No. 3 and his place is being filled by substitute H. W. Owens.

John Wallace and Mrs. Mary White, widow of the late Edward White of Stockbridge, were married at Enfield, N. H., May 10, by Rev. Albert Hill, and will occupy a tenement in the house recently purchased by W. N. Batchelder on Pleasant street.

Rev. H. M. Springer, a retired Methodist minister, has purchased the Waller farm situated in Royalton, about one mile south of this village. The farm has two dwellings, one of which he will occupy, and the other is rented to C. L. Stuckney.

Wallace Batchelder has purchased of Dr. H. W. Holden his house on Pleasant street and will move there about the first of June. Mr. Batchelder also takes Dr. Holden's rooms in the bank building, which he will use as a law office, moving from his present quarters in the Moody block.

Miss Bessie Shepard has gone to Boston for a month's stay with friends there.

W. C. Laroche has sold his farm to A. C. Buck of Nyack, N. Y., for $4,100, including real estate, farming tools, etc.

Hon. Mason Stone has been secured to deliver the Memorial day address in Bethel May 31. Music will be furnished by the Randolph band.

Work will soon be begun upon the enlargement of the Sylvester block, the property of William E. Edmunds. An addition on the rear 20 x 26 four stories high will be one of the improvements. Frank Lyman is to have charge of the carpenter work.

Disc Harrow

The flexible gangs pass over stones (as shown in the above picture) without injury to the discs. They adjust themselves in like manner to uneven ground and always work at a uniform depth. The roughest field is tilled as nicely as the perfectly level one. By means of a foot lever the driver adjusts the spring-pressure on the inside gang-ends to suit the nature of the soil. This exclusive feature, together with the direct draft and the high grade sharp steel discs, makes the work very light for the team. Simple in construction, durable and easily adjusted, the Walter A. Wood Disc Harrow is the favorite of thousands of farmers.
